

Writers on Early American Marxism

1880-1946

Writings by or on the authors in the Early American Marxism Archive. Most of these writings are in PDF format and located in this the directories of the EAM. Others are located among the various writers on the Marxists Internet Archive and are often in HTML. Where possible we have provided brief descriptions of each writing.

James P. Cannon This takes the reader to the James P. Cannon Internet Archive that archives the whole of Cannon's writings on the Marxist Internet Archive. Some of the files reside there, others here in the Early American Marxism section of the MIA.

Eugene V. Debs This takes the reader to the Eugene V. Debs Internet Archive that archives the whole of Debs' contributions on the Marxist Internet Archive. Some of the files reside there, others here in the Early American Marxism section of the MIA.

Daniel De Leon This takes the reader to the Daniel De Leon Internet Archive that archives the whole of De Leon's contributions on the Marxist Internet Archive. Most of these files reside there, in PDF format, a few are here in the Early American Marxism section of the MIA. We have, as of the date stamp at the bottom of this page, only a very small collection of De Leon's writings, most reside in his Internet Archive.

Jay Lovestone This is an index page of writings by Jay Lovestone that exist solely inside the Early American Marxism section of the MIA.

John Reed This takes the reader to the John Reed Internet Archive that archives the whole of Reed's writings on the Marxist Internet Archive. Some of the files reside there, others here in the Early American Marxism section of the MIA.

C.E. Ruthenberg This is an index page of writings by C.E. Ruthenberg that exist solely inside the Early American Marxism section of the MIA.

Philip Van Patten Early American Marxist based in Detroit

Return to Document Downloads Page Page
Return to Early American Marxism Home Page